HONOR AND MERIT AWARDS BY OTHER AGENCIES

1. Personnel are reminded that, under the provisions of [redacted] both military and civilian detailees may be considered for awards by their parent organizations for exceptional Agency service or achievement. Recommendations for such awards, however, must in all cases be forwarded to the CIA Honor and Merit Awards Board for review. When the board determines that a recommendation merits consideration by the parent department or agency, it will propose a method of transmitting the recommendation to the parent organization.

2. [redacted] will soon be revised to specifically include military personnel. Meanwhile, procedures for initiating all recommendations for Honor and Merit Awards are covered in [redacted]
